

Effect sizes and uncertainty for candidate genes

Notch2 CKO relative to wild type; same eight-gene panel

Points: unshrunk maximum-likelihood effects. Bars: approximate 95% Wald confidence intervals, not multiplicity-adjusted.
FDR values use all eligible genes, not only this panel. With n = 3 per group, uncertainty and sample variability remain important.